MARCEL SAYS BOBBED HAIR IS DOOMED NOW

According to M. Marcel, pioneer of the Marcel wave, the death knell of bobbed hair has been sounded.
At the hair-dressers' exhibition, just opened in London, many variants of the style which will supercede the "bob" during the coming season are shown.

Chief among these is the old-fashioned coiffure popular in the eighties, the hair being parted in the center, combed down very smoothly and finished with a cluster of curls each side, completely hiding the ears.

Silken wigs are the latest fashion craze shown, blue and green colors seeming to be the most popular.

MULE KILLED BUT RIDER AND SUGAR SAVED

Riding a mule and carrying a sack of sugar, Fred Salmons was crossing the track at Crum, near Louis, Ky., when struck by a freight train. He landed on the cow-catcher and when the train could be brought to a stop it was found that he was not injured and the sack of sugar had not been broken. The mule was ground to pieces, but Salmons' missing hat was found on one of the hoofs near the track, and had not been damaged.

Why Lobsters Turn Red.
The rough armored jackets of crabs and lobsters are really red in color, but they are darkened by considerable quantities of black pigment.
When they are placed in boiling water the pigment is dissolved and the red color shows up.

KANSAS WRATHY AGAINST KU KLUX KLAN

Legal proceedings which may make it unlawful for any person in Kansas to be a member of the Ku Klux Klan were forecast in the announcement by Governor Henry J.
Allen that he had been assured by the State Attorney General's office that ouster proceedings against the Klan would be filed in the State Supreme Court.

It was thought at the State House that the suit probably would be begun at once, as it was announced all papers have been prepared.

The suit against the Klan will be brought on the ground that the organization is a Georgia corporation not registered to do business in Kansas. The suit may further result in attempts to remove from office all county and State law enforcement officers known to be members of the Klan, it was said.

PASSING OF THE AUCTIONS

(Stanford Interior-Journal) A report of sales of tobacco over loose leaf market floors for the market years of 1920 and 1921 is illuminating, in that it shows clearly what the co-operative marketing system has done to the auctions. In a report sent out by Director of Warehouses Ralph M. Barker to the tobacco trade generally, it is shown that tobacco sales at auction dropped from 297,000,000 pounds in 1920 to 57,000,000 pounds in 1921, the first year of the co-operative, or a loss to the auctions of more than 80 per cent.

These figures, of course, are based on the growers who sold through the association in 1921. When one reflects that since the crop of 1921 was sold 16,000 additional growers have come into the association, he may get some idea of the probable loss to the auction system this year compared with 1920 or even with 1921.

A speaker for the Burley Association a few days ago predicted that ten years from now, if the words "loose leaf warehouse" are mentioned in the hearing of a farm child, he will ask: "Why, what was a loose leaf warehouse?" The Interior Journal believes that is not overstating it.

HUNGARY'S FIRST PRESIDENT
EXILE IN KENTUCKY

John Hock, first president of the national council which took over the reins of government temporarily when the dynasty was scrapped, paid a visit to compatriots who have established a co-operative mining enterprise at Himlerville, Martin county, Kentucky.
Hock is in exile, as the result of the uprising following the birth of the republic, and the ascendancy of the Bolsheviks. His wealth was confiscated and he and his friends fled to America.

Most persons prefer to consult the doctor who has the least time to give to them.

ANNUAL COLONEL CROP

Much fun is poked at "Kentucky Colonels" and they have furnished the inspirations for many a misapplied, but the ordinary Kentuckian does not resent or seriously object to being dubbed "Colonel." Many of them like it.

Some few of the Colonels acquired the rank in military service and others had it conferred upon them by being appointed on the Governor's staff, but the most of them wear the title only through courtesy. For some unaccountable reason an auctioneer is accorded the prefix of colonel and the political boss is addressed as colonel by his underlings. Strangers have noticed that the most reticent Kentuckian is apt to warm up and respond when addressed as "Colonel" and this in a way may account for freedom with which the title is applied.

Before the passing of the mint julep and old-fashioned toddy, the punsers with constant reiteration made it appear that a "Kentucky Colonel" acquired the title because he was a good judge of whisky, but this was a gross libel on many bone-dry "Colonels." The erroneous impression gave rise to the old couplet: "Kentucky is full of colonels and the colonels full of corn." Tennessee has a preponderance of generals due to the fact that every public prosecutor acquires and retains the title. In Virginia, the majors are said to predominate, but in Kentucky it is safe to use
"colonel" indiscriminately.

RUGGLES

Many intelligent mothers overlook these few simple facts about food-

EVERY mother interested in her children's welfare meets a problem in the proper feeding of her boys and girls.

Parents often do not realize the evil effects of mal-nutrition; and that care in the selection of food will avoid a large percentage of children's ills.

One of the best of all foods for providing proper nourishment for growing boys and girls is Grape-Nuts—made of whole wheat flour and malted barley, and scientifically baked for twenty hours.
This long baking brings out a delicious flavor, makes the food easy to digest—without fermentation. Grape-Nuts with milk or cream is a complete food.

Here is a suggestion for better health: Serve Grape-Nuts as often as the folks wish it.
